

Fall Conference
November 3, 2009

Growing Lifelong Learners Through the Library

What? Library Fall Conference, Growing Lifelong Learners Through the Library — a full day of FREE professional development for library personnel. Highlights of the day include:

- √ A keynote on Information Fluency for Lifelong Learning;
- √ Vendor displays from dozens of vendors;
- √ Concurrent sessions on literacy, technology, inquiry, and library operations; and
- √ Professional dialogue with librarians from across the City.

Who? All library personnel.

Where? Brooklyn Technical High School at 29 Ft. Greene Place, Brooklyn, NY 11217.

When? Election Day, Tuesday, November 3, 2009 from 8:00 am to 3:00 pm.

How? Register online at <http://pd.nycoit.org> by October 30.

For additional information, please contact the Office of Library Services at libraries@schools.nyc.gov or (212) 374-0328.

Attendance at this conference is free for all schools.

NYC School Library System
Department of Library Services
NYC Department of Education